

Women in Leadership Forum

McKinsey & Company are dedicated to developing female leaders at every stage of your career. At university, there are amazing opportunities to inspire and lead, be it in student clubs, community groups, or at work. Based on our Centered Leadership research, we have custom designed the Women in Leadership Forum to help you bring your best and truest self to your leadership roles.

What is the Forum?

Over three sessions, you will join a community of like-minded women to explore:

- Meaning: Finding your purpose and leading with your strengths
- Framing: Expanding your world view and overcoming setbacks
- Connecting: Building a mutually supportive community
- Engaging: Finding your voice and seizing opportunities
- Energising: Recognising when and how to recharge your batteries

Who is the program designed for?

This program is ideal for you if:

- You are a female university student or an early career professional (<5 years professional experience) in any discipline
- Enjoy solving complex problems and thinking creatively
- Wish to develop your leadership skills to make a greater impact in your community

Where and when is it?

The first two sessions will take place virtually, on the following dates:

- Friday, 8 September 2023
- Friday, 22 September 2023

The final session will take place in person on:

- Friday, 6 October 2023 in Sydney, Melb, Perth, Brisbane and Auckland

How to apply?

Submit your application by Friday 25 August 2023 including the below:

- 1-2 page CV with ATAR (or equivalent)
- University transcripts

We look forward to learning more about you and hope to share in your leadership journey!

