Events

- Club Carnival

- Date pushed back a week but we've set up our events around it.
- Good 15 to 20 members for Club Carnival sign ups.
- Have a regular board games night this Thursday and push back Refresher Rewelcome to Week 3.

- Refresher Rewelcome

- Push back to Thursday Week 3 (now on the 17th of August) to accommodate new Club Carnival people and new Club Carnival Date.

> Emily update the EMP and Facebook Event Page for Refresher Rewelcome

- Change Facebook event that's already there to be a regular board games night and then add a new event for Refresher Rewelcome
- Easy board game will be played.

LARP

- Mini-Larp happening this Saturday.
- We can use like Oak Lawn like we put on the EMP so we're setting up for Open Day.
- We had a Larpmite meeting to discuss mini-larp as well as some details about mmmainain LARP at the end of the year.
- Should have the fields near Barry J Marhsall to use
- Worst case scenario have it at Matilda Bay.
- Keep updated on the facebook page for more details about the venue
- Emergency book the loft in case there's serious rain.
- Weather is something to take into account.
- Rhys should be making us an electronic hacking system for the main LARP. Looks like he's likely to get it done which will be good.

Roleplay of Life

- Weekend of Week 5.
- Confirmation of GMing from Cam, Andre and Winslade as well as Tom for battle sims.

> Taylor to make the Roleplay for Life event page and start advertising that.

- Taylor to set up the event same way as you did last year with a $5 entry into the initial game and another $1 each time you revive.
- $2 to keep the same character alive, $1 to buy a new one.
- Donating money to make things happen in the game will have you commenting on Facebook or Twitch with your payment. (You can't comment without a Twitch account)

Charity Vigil

- Charity Vigil is going to be the 23rd to the 24th.

- Usually begins at 4-5 on the 23rd to 10am on the 24th but people who get tired can just leave whenever they like.
- UNISFA and UCC already picked representatives.
- Gavin set up a Facebook page.
- Pantomine is still picking their representatives I literally just messaged them this morning.
- Update: Andre just walked in and told us they're sending Stella.
- Need to have a meeting within the next week because things like EMP, Charity Choice and deciding an Entry price needs to be done pretty quickly.
- Good to have Charity name before we do Book Buy at Tactics so we can get Charity Donations from Tactics.

> Gavin to organise a date for Charity Vigil in the next week.

- Outline for looking for Charities: make sure you find some that are youth based

> Gavin to go to Guild Volunteering today and get ideas for Charities to sponsor

> Taylor to get an overnight pass for Roleplay for Life

Relay of Life

> Gavin to go to Guild Volunteering to get a tin for Relay for Life

- Gavin went to the meeting for Relay for Life last week. Nothing particularly important to report but was good.
- Taylor had a creepy voice in the video they used from 2015 about UWA Relay people saying "join us"
- Let Relay for Life people know that Unigames, UNISFA and Panto want to be next to each other; hopefully the UCC/UWAnime team get together.
- Good to get the teams into a square for optimal organisation and operation.
- Sign ups are now $40 but it's all still part of the Donations. Just hit people up for Donations before you sign up.
- UNISFA is keen to do the Battle Tin. Tin for donations and whoever runs the most laps
- Last year Taylor donated $1 per lap. Will she do it again if we put our record? Find out next time @ Relay for Life.
- Last year we ran 808 laps over 24 hours.

- Painting Day

- Welfare Week is Week 10 - same week as Relay for Life.
- Can do it either closer to exams or as part of Welfare Week.

- OGM

- Later.exe.

Haunted House

- Emily and/or Alaura will represent Unigames

Holiday Projects

- Streaming

- Need to have a test stream with Taylor.

- Also need to have a longer test stream

> Alaura to give Donald CD for Software to work.

- Could also borrow a PC from UCC to use theirs.
- Need to have at least two more test streams to test different options.

> Emily to bring in her tripod in to try film Battle Mat.

- Stale Campaigns

- Not much attention has been given to it because we've been using our facebook page a lot.
- Potential to change Facebook banner to better advertise our events.
- Stuff that is usually in the pinned post could get into banner.

> Alaura to draft an update to the banner on the Unigames page

- Library Book

- We have new one.
- It now has a due date input. Make sure that it's filled in
- If games need to be returned in a shorter time than two weeks it can be filled in manually.
- Take note of the date written into the book.
- Now has three times the entry per piece of paper you're welcome environment.

- Room Update

- We have to move we can't let Roland win
- New floorboard have not been put in yet. Will it come in the next 24 hours as I was informed last week? Or have they all caught fire and we're starting from scratch?
