Events

Lego Party

- Not too much engagement with Lego
- People turned up
- Force people to play with Lego
- Good idea let's do more

LARP

- Updates on LARP:
 - Printing costed $7 instead of under $30
- Simon would like to approve $20 spending for prizes
- Motion:
 - For: Unanimous
- Should LAERPers get prizes? Contentious debate

Christmas in July

- EMP is 99% done
 - Waiting for venue plan
- Cost should be about $17 for venue and skates
- Event should go up soon
- Christmas movies
- There will be a Dominoes run
- Katherine will skype in if that sweetens the pot

40th Anniversary

- SO.....
- Sunken Garden hire for drinks and staff $6000
- Tav is about $1000 for around the same, but we won't need security probably
- Tav Hire will be significantly cheaper and a lot more affordable and accessible
- Worse venue but has toilets
- We can hire the pool tables so we can use them for free during the night
- Motion to have 40th anniversary at Tav:
 - F: Unanimous

- We haven't put any deposits down
 - Lose nothing, gain everything
- It's existing
- Posters need to be redone
- Party streamers emoji

Camp

- Not much
- EMP needs to be done before end of holidays
- I'm thinking about the LARP

Next Week

Tenancy

- We kept our food cupboard, yay
- We've lost a bunch of cupboards, oh no
 - A bunch of cupboards are unallocated, so we'll put an appeal for them
 - We need space to keep the doubles
- As of Monday, only execs can get keys from Guild
 - We can apply for OCMs to have access
- Next Busy Bee on Sat 28th of July
 - Kat is sending apologies
- There will be a survey of how we use the clubroom and whether we're using it correctly and in line with our original application
- We need to submit a work order to have one of the globes fixed
- Tenancy wants to allow clubrooms to be licensed
 - This is a terrible decision from the tenancy committee
 - Causes an incredible amount of danger and insecurity
- Unigames' old room is being given to the Wine Appreciation Society and Craft Brewers' Association
 - They want to drink and brew inside of it
- Main worry:
 - Cam Hall is such an open space that it invites issues like having to lock the rooms up when there's an event (to prevent damage) or having Cam Hall be an 18+ area
 - Terrible ideas

- UniSFA dislikes this; Panto, Unigames, and UCC also dislike this
- Campus Culture will not be resurrected
- We just did a busy bee
 - The room is nice and clean

Finance

- We still have money
- Reminder: Autumn work on the fancy money report
- Also work on that new price list
- Probably should do a new fridge run at some point

Library

Splat Buys

- Chuck Tingle books
 - Kat to prepare budget
 - Wouldn't it be nice if we got books to match the book theme of the while?
- Should get TAZ graphic novel
- Second Dresden files
- Jonathon Livingston Segull
- The difference between splat buys and book buys
 - Book buys are newer and in book buys
 - Splat buys are stuff we have to go out and seek

Save the Children's Book List

- Kat didn't get many responses from FB
- Kat is to be given a smallist budget to get books with
- Send Kat your book ideas

Misc.

- Kat is away over the holidays
 - Who wants to re-catalogue the books with missing dates?
 - All of us can pitch in!
 - We have to give Will a library account
- She's repairing damaged books
 - They're being put back into the system

General Business

Logo

- Monday meeting
- Decided to not commission Chase
- We need to get this logo really right
- We're looking at more artists
- I've been talking to Liam Ricketts
