Library :(

- Will thinks that the advanced copies discussion should be moved to after exams
- We all agree with him
- Katherine has idea to spend book club money on inclusive books
  - We just did a splat buy so maybe wait for the cooldown there

I Can Lick 30 Tigers Today and Yertle the Turtle by Dr. Seuss

- He doesn't even lick any tigers, first of all
- Children's books
- Kind of spec fic, based on the inherent Suess-ness
- Accessible in literally every library on Earth
- It doesn't have fantastical creatures in it (or knowledge of where they may be found)
- Ryan: "I'd like to keep this book partially because I like cats, and partially because it's far more valuable than many other books we've kept"
- UniSFA has in the past gotten rid of children's books
- People like Dr Seuss
- They're the kind of books people will flick through even if they aren't looking for them
- People have read Yertle the Turtle in this room in the past
- We kept Calvin and Hobbes
- The library makes people happy
- Motion to put these up for removal:
  - For: Katherine, Will
  - Against: Simon, Edward, Finley, Autumn, Ryan

The Brand New Monty Python Papperbok by Unknown (??)

- What the fuck is this?
- It's a hilarious shitpost that's almost unreadable
- Ryan: "Still more valuable than half the things in the library"
- Motion to put this up for removal:
  - For: Unanimous

Jolliffe's Outback, Iss. 102 by E. Jolliffe

- The place where live is not spec fic
- Australia cartoons and stories
- Motion to put up for removal:
  - For: Unanimous

Collection of Books by E.E. 'Doc' Smith

- Books:
  - 2 and 4 of the Skylark series
    - 4 book series
    - Perhaps not worth getting
    - We have lots of their work
    - Motion:
      - For: Unanimous
  - 2 and 3 of Lord Tedric series
    - Quote from Wikipeddia on this series: "Almost completely forgotten until after his death"
    - Books were in fact ghost-written after his death
    - Motion to put these books up for removal:
      - For: Unanimous
- EE 'Doc' Smith looks like Noam Chomsky
  - ?????
  - Important revelations
  - UniSFA collectively marvels
  - More known for being a food engineer than a science-fiction author

General Business

- Simon will post those logos
- Simon to send Katherine the logo vector

- Nic Bannon would like to teach UniSFA how to run Koha
- I'll post in the CCC group for anyone who is interested in learning how to do that
- If you would like to be on committee or CCC next year, please get in touch
